Title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act can be provided to eligible persons under that law's regulations, policies, and procedures. We do all that we can and will explain what we can do to help. Not all problems will necessarily have a solution you wish. But so we listen to you and listen let you know various services from CAP.

We understand you may want

In order to assist you with other agencies, we need a signed release of available records. Recommendations will be made after a review are provided except as your request. Specific accordance with civil rights law. No services completely confidential and provided in release from you. All CAP services are

Phone: 515-242-6119
Fax: 800-652-4298
Voice and TTY: 800-652-4198
Des Moines, Iowa 50319
Lucas State Office Building

Iowa Department of Human Rights

Client Assistance Program

CAP

Client Assistance Program

CAP

Email: dhx.disabilityservices@iowa.gov
Agencies Include:

Services and Support also do eligible to receive other helpful referrals. Information and advice you may services from an agency funded under the Rehabilitation Act in addition to services you are seeking or receiving.

If you are seeking or receiving assistance at an impartial hearing, an administrative review, mediation, or negotiation:

Special services available:

The Rehabilitation Act

Other service providers funded under

Independent Living Centers

Iowa Vocational Rehabilitation Services

Department for the Blind

a regulatory agency, and is neither a funding agency nor the Iowa Department of Human Rights Office of Persons with Disabilities is part citizens with any type of disability. The based agency to provide services to all Iowa with disabilities, the only governmental-CAP is operated by the Office of Persons with disabilities. CAP is your source for information and advice about how to overcome obstacles you may encounter.

If you are an Iowa with a disability, CAP is your source for information and advice about how to overcome obstacles you may encounter.

Welcome to CAP