

Iowa Women's Hall of Fame 2021 Cristine Wilson Medal for Equality and Justice Nomination Form

The Iowa Commission on the Status of Women strives to recognize the contributions of Iowa women as well as the impact that individuals of all genders have made in improving the status of Iowa women. As part of that goal, the Cristine Wilson Medal for Equality and Justice was established in 1982, in honor of Cristine Wilson, the first chair of the statutory Commission. In accordance with 435 IAC 3.4, the medal is awarded on an intermittent basis to persons whose work is deemed outstanding and a significant contribution to Iowa's recognition as a state characterized by equality and justice.

About Cristine Swanson Wilson

Cristine Swanson Wilson's innovative spirit and hard work made the Iowa Women's Hall of Fame a reality. Wilson served on temporary Governor's commissions on women that evolved into the Iowa Commission on the Status of Women in 1972, the first permanent state agency for Women's concerns. As its first chair, Wilson fought for passage of anti-discriminatory laws in housing, credit, education, employment, and insurance; recognition of homemakers' contributions in inheritance tax determination; a model, progressive rape statute; provision for state funding and licensing of childcare centers; creation of a process by which more women could be appointed to state boards and commissions; and creation of the Iowa Women's Hall of Fame. As a women's movement pioneer, Wilson helped to found the Iowa Women's Political Caucus and served as the first woman chair of the Republican Party of Polk County's Platform committee. Her remarkable achievements have contributed to Iowa's recognition nationally as a state characterized by equality and justice. In 1982, the Commission established a Medal for Equality and Justice in her name, which is awarded to Iowans whose life and work illustrate such service and dedication. She was inducted into the Iowa Women's Hall of Fame in 1989.

Selection Process
