Charge:

The IGJI planning group will develop and coordinate implementation of a plan for services and supervision of young women who are involved in the juvenile justice system at the deepest levels.

This plan will be:

- Innovative, viable and effective;
- Female and culturally-responsive, trauma informed, strength-based, and developmentally appropriate;
- Data-driven and research-based;
- Applicable in a variety of settings and levels of supervision, while emphasizing the needs of young women who are high risk and/or high need.

Guiding Principles

The following guiding principles will be observed by IGJI Working Group members in their discussions, deliberations, and planning throughout the course of this initiative.

- Maintain focus on girls in the deep end of the juvenile justice system.
- Ensure inclusive focus on gender and culture.
- Maintain systems approach.
- Contribute your particular expertise throughout the planning process.
- Attend the meetings and participate.
- Prepare in advance of each meeting.
- One person talks at a time.
- Be open to new ideas.
- Address the charge to the working group.
