Nomination Criteria

Iowa Latino Hall of Fame

Latinos/as inducted into the Hall of Fame have made a major impact on the lives of others and helped to elevate the status of Latinos in our state, our nation, and, in some cases, around the world.

Iowa Latinx Youth Leadership Award

The Latinx Youth Leadership Award is awarded to an Iowa Latinx youth that is making a difference in their community.

Iowa LGBTQIA Leadership Award

Awarded to an Iowa Lesbian, Gay, Bi-sexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, or Asexual Person of Color that has made outstanding and significant cultural, political, social, and economic contributions to Iowa.

Iowa LGBTQIA Leadership Award

The Robert D. Ray Award for Equity and Justice recognizes and honors the efforts and accomplishments of non-Latino and/or Latino Iowans. The award is awarded to persons whose work is deemed outstanding and a significant contribution to the equity and justice for Iowa's new immigrant population.

When choosing someone to honor, consider the following questions:

- What enduring contributions have been made by the nominee?
- How has the nominee positively impacted adult Latinos and youth?
- Is the community and/or state better for the contributions of the nominee?
- Are Latinos/as in Iowa, the region, and/or the United States better, has their status improved, or have opportunities increased for Latinos because of the life and contributions of the nominee? and/or
- Is the nation, world, or particular discipline, profession, or field better because of the contributions of the nominee?

Please note:

- Nominees may be contemporary (living) or historical (deceased) and will be selected on merit, not an endorsement.
- Incomplete forms or a single form nominating more than one person cannot be considered.
- Only electronic nominations will be accepted.
- If your candidate is chosen as an inductee, be aware that a portrait photo will be requested of you (for historical nominees) or the contemporary inductee at the time of selection.
- Nominations remain current for three years and may then be resubmitted.
- Regardless of whether the candidate is living or deceased, there should be a sense that the accomplishments and/or contributions evidenced are of such special significance as likely to be thought outstanding when reflected upon from the perspective of future generations.
