

Equal Justice for Juveniles: Pre-Conference Survey

June 15, 2016

Powered by  SurveyMonkey

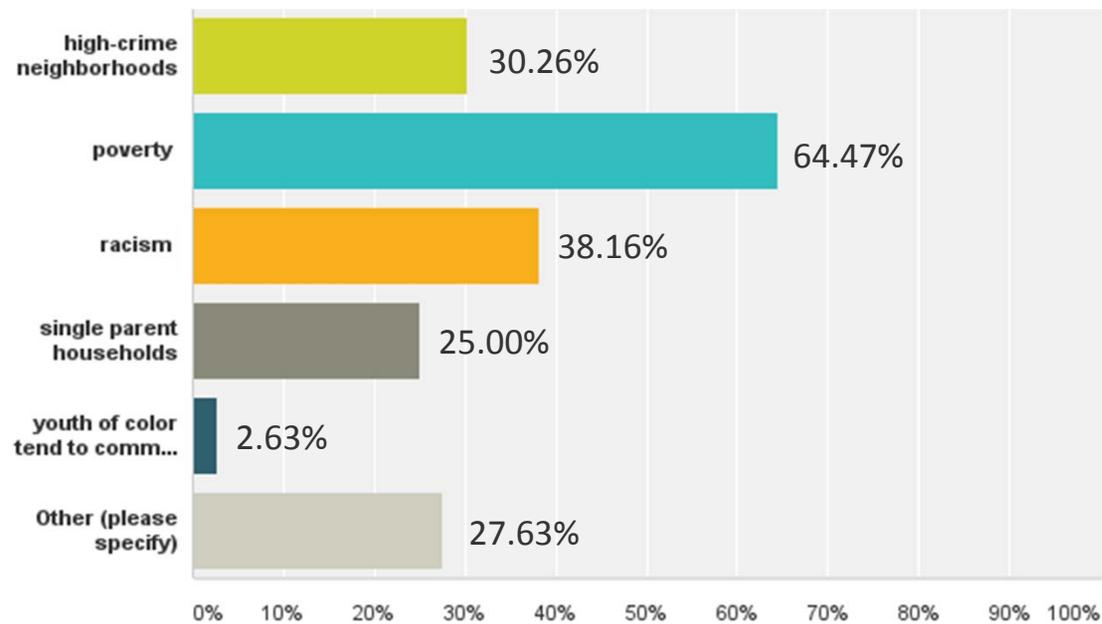

Q1: Which of the following best describes your job title or agency?

Answered: 76 Skipped: 0

Q2: What do you believe causes the over-representation of youth of color in the delinquency system? Choose up to two.

Answered: 76

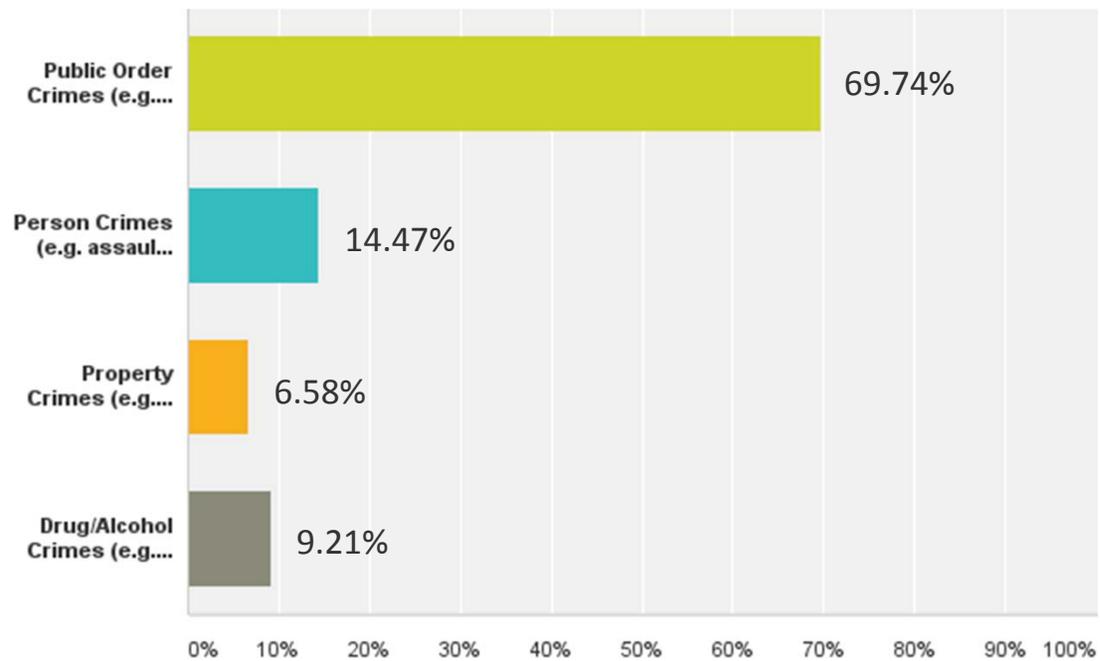

Q2: Other Responses

- Biases
- racial profiling, education system
- Bad question you can't put it on just one or two things
- I think many factors influence high crime neighborhoods including education, culture, education
- Institutional Racism
- Lack of access to opportunity
- peer group pressure
- Implicit bias in the system
- I believe that there are some many factors that cause this. The four reasons listed about is just a start.
- Lack of access to effective programming to instill hope and enthusiasm for learning.
- distrust in law enforcement and court system
- Lack of educational and economic opportunities
- Profiling
- implicit bias
- White school administrators, teachers and other authority figures have great difficulty in relating to students and families of color.
- if it could be answered in a one line sentence it would not be a problem anymore
- Lack of positive adults in their lives
- lack of education
- Persistence of local and federal policies that limit opportunities of minority populations.
- Attitudes! Youth of color distrust of the system and the systems distrust of youth of color precipitated by the media

Q3: For what type of offense do you believe youth of color are most likely to be arrested (taken into custody)?”

Answered: 76

Q4: Do you think youth of color are more likely than white youth to distrust the delinquency system?

Answered: 76

